Our hope is to pay tribute to the over 25 million living veterans and the active service personnel across the globe who exemplify the true character of the American spirit.

All area Veteran's are invited to this event, but a special invitation is extended to our veteran parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, guardians, aunts, uncles and others! It is a time to honor our men and women for the sacrifices they have made for all of us.

ALLIANCE FOR A HEALTHIER GENERATION

A WALK A DAY!

A daily family walk is a great way to get your child and you moving. Some families take a walk after dinner. Others plan a morning walk on the weekends. For parents who are home after school, that's often a great time to walk.

Figure out the best time for your family's schedule, and use the time to walk and talk, you'll be helping everyone get healthier, and you'll be spending special time together. Make the walk more fun by mixing it up: walk one block and skip for the next, or alternate walking fast and slow. You can even sneak some learning time on your walk. For example have your child count how many trees you pass or read the signs along the way.

RESPECTFULLY YOURS

Teaching your child to speak and act respectfully is one of the most important things parents can do. Here are suggestions that will help you raise a youngster who makes others feel respected and earns their respect in return.

Behave Respectfully:

Together, create family rules that contain the word "respect." Examples: "Respect others by keeping your hands and feet to your self." "Respect property by putting clothes and toys away."

Speak Respectfully:

Ask your youngster to rephrase requests that aren't respectful. If he shouts, "I want a snack!" you might say "I'll listen when you ask nicely." And since he will follow your lead, talk to him the same way you would like him to address you. Instead of saying, "you're in the way," say, "Excuse me, please."

Disagree Respectfully:

Teach your child to share his opinion politely. For example, show him how you respect his choice of ice cream flavor while explaining your own: "Chocolate chip is yummy. But I like strawberry because it's fruity." Remind him that he won't always agree with people, sometimes it's okay to "agree to disagree."
